To whom it may concern,

For many years my husband was self- employed as a building contractor, mostly in the remodeling area. Everything was going well until 2008 when the stock market plunged and many people lost their jobs. One of the first things folks stopped doing was remodeling or repairing their homes. We ended up over $100,000 in debt. We tried to keep up with the bills but there were just too many for my paycheck to cover.

During this time we did sign up with a debt counseling company but they would only take on personal debt, no business debt. My husband went to truck driving school and was hired by a company that did deliveries on the East Coast. He heard about Corporate Turnaround on the radio when he was out East. He gave me the phone number and I called right away. The people I spoke with were very friendly and helpful. It was such a relief to finally have the collection calls stop! It has been about 4 ½ years and we have our debt paid off. Our savings was about $24,000!!! We are very happy to say the least. It is a long road when you're on it but well worth it when the end is in sight!

I would recommend Corporate Turnaround and Adam [Redacted] to anyone that is looking to save their business and avoid closing their doors.

Thanks again guys!

Your company's results may vary. Every restructuring has a unique combination of issues and factors, including the length of participation in the program. All of these variables affect individual outcomes. There are no "typical" results. There are no time limits for reaching settlements. Some creditors may settle after CT's first set of offers, and others may be resolved later on. Consult with a licensed attorney regarding the applicability of bankruptcy. Settlement offers range from pennies on the dollar to payment in full. There is no guarantee of savings. Until a debt is resolved, creditors may continue with their collection efforts, including phone calls and legal action. CT does not provide any legal services or legal advice.
